

WORD: MEMORIZE: O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh (Mt.12:24)

What Are You Saying?

"The greatest and ever valued present to another is the purity of your concern". – Mark Amadi

Our spoken words are powerful and as such could define who we are. Our spoken words could kill, destroy, bless or bring to life. The words we utter are not far from who and what we are, and what and who dwells in us.

From the abundance of our heart we speak, thus the word we utter is a true reflection of our inside. Our body gesture; body language or reaction could also be regarded as spoken words. (Action speaks louder than word as we do say). Our heart could say a lot without speaking out. (Ps.15).

Who dwells in the inside of you?

"The good man brings good things out of the good stored up in him, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in him"
Mt. 12:35

To stand with God, good things must be stored in our side. The situation or how we are treated is no excuse to store up ungodly thoughts. It is written, he who has a "clean hand and a pure heart" (Ps.24). Good works are no replacement for righteousness. Be Holy says the Lord God.

Do you find it difficult controlling your thoughts? Perchance you struggle with negative, ungodly thoughts. What you think determines where you end up in life, thus, it is very important to have a pure heart to stand with God. (Mt.5:8, Jn.4:24)

Have you also thought of this - that sometimes, out of the abundance of our prayers, our heart speaks to God? How does God sees you when you go on your knees? Pouring our heart to God is wonderful, but, what do we say? When the heart is not pure, our prayer could be an abomination to God. (Ps.66:18, Mt.6:5, Lk.18:13)

Sometimes, God wants us to say something else apart from our normal – give me, make me or fight my battle. Brethren, it would be spiritually and mentally helpful if we also check the attitude we use in approaching this Holy and Righteous God.

God is very much interested in the message our entire being is communicating.
